SEEN PASSAGE

Chapter - Dr APJ Abdul Kalam

Q1. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow. (Solve any 4 out of 5)

Deepak picked up his bag and ran down the winding road on his way to school. He heard the school bell ring and said to himself. "There goes the school bell! It is welcoming me! As he ran in, the giggles and chatter of other children greeted him. Deepak entered the classroom and sat on a seat near the window, his favourite corner. He took out his book and the class teacher entered. "Good morning, ma'am." greeted the students. She smiled and looked around. "Good morning, dear children. Today, we will read about a very famous person who was also the President of our country. Look at this picture and let me see how many of you can guess his name." All the students shouted. "APJ Abdul Kalam" "Yes" she said.

Deepak, like others, opened his book and waited. He had started coming to school after a gap of one year. After his father's death in the city, it was not possible for his mother to send him to school. They shifted to their village and she started working in the fields to earn a living. Deepak wanted to become a police officer. But his dream was shattered. Life went on and one morning, he saw a big board at the village crossing.
